POELLATH advises Marvel Fusion on financing round of EUR 35 million

Munich-based Marvel Fusion GmbH (“Marvel Fusion”) has successfully closed a Series A financing round of EUR 35 million. Earlybird led the investor round. To date, the company has raised a total of EUR 60 million. POELLATH provided comprehensive legal advice to Marvel Fusion as part of the current financing round.

Founded in 2019, energy pioneer Marvel Fusion is working on a novel technology to decisively accelerate the commercialization of fusion as an energy source. This technology could generate unlimited, CO2-free energy in the future without leaving persistent radioactive waste as a byproduct. The company plans to use the new funding to further develop the science and expedite its experimental roadmap.

Earlybird is a venture capital investor that invests in various growth stages of company development and offers its portfolio companies not only financial resources, but also strategic support and access to an international network and the capital market. The company currently manages funds totaling more than EUR 1.5 billion in the sectors of digital technologies in Eastern and Western Europe, healthcare and university spin-offs. Earlybird is one of the most experienced and successful venture capitalists in Europe.

POELLATH advised Marvel Fusion on this financing round with the following Munich team:

- Jens Hörmann (partner, lead, M&A/private equity).
- Dr. Sebastian Gerlinger (counsel, M&A/private equity)
- Alexander Pfefferler (senior associate, M&A/private equity)
