POELLATH advises EMH Partners on EMMA Capital's investment in newly formed "Home Furniture Group"

The investment group EMH Partners, EMMA Capital and minority shareholders of Kiveda Group Holding, the parent company of "Küchenquelle", have re-formed the "Home Furniture Group" (HFG).

The current majority shareholders of Kiveda remain involved. EMH Partners had invested in Kiveda in 2016 and, in the following years, drove the reorganization and transformation into a digitalized company. EMMA Capital will inject new growth capital.

With the formation of the new Home Furniture Group, EMMA Capital and EMH Partners are entering into a strong partnership, with both companies each holding more than 40%. The remaining shares are held by minority shareholders.

POELLATH provided comprehensive legal advice to EMH Partners with the following Munich-based team:

- Dr. Frank Thiäner (partner, M&A/private equity)
- Dr. Tim Junginger (counsel, M&A/private equity)
- Dr. Dominik Gerlicher (associate, M&A/private equity)
