POELLATH advised AM Ventures EUR 100 million fundraising

POELLATH advised AM Ventures, one of the world's leading venture capitalists in additive manufacturing (AM), on the structuring of and fundraising for its first venture capital fund focused on industrial 3D printing. The fund successfully closed at the hard cap of EUR 100 million. Investors include established family offices, asset managers, SMEs and multinational enterprises, as well as startup founders that AM Ventures has already supported. The company will use the fund to expand its strong portfolio of 17 companies and further advance the industrial 3D printing industry worldwide.

Founded in 2021 and based in Munich, Germany, AM Ventures is a leading venture capital firm in the industrial 3D printing (additive manufacturing, AM) sector. The company has backed over 20 successful companies in seven countries on three continents. The team has extensive technological know-how and is well-connected with the most experienced experts in the field. As an investment partner, the company provides a leading worldwide ecosystem for sustainable investment in AM and offers entrepreneurs access to a large pool of industry veterans with decades of engineering, manufacturing and management experience.

POELLATH provided comprehensive advice to AM Ventures on all aspects of fund structuring, contractual documentation and negotiations with domestic and foreign investors with the following Berlin-based fund team:

- Amos Veith, LL.M. \(Aberdeen\) (partner, lead)
- Dr. Robert Eberius, LL.M. \(Stellenbosch\) (counsel)
